2014-2015 NESAs UGRAD Application Instructions

A program of the Bureau of Educational and Cultural Affairs, U.S. Department of State

ACADEMIC PROGRAM

The Near East, South Asia, and Sub-Saharan Africa Undergraduate Exchange Program, NESAs UGRAD, is a part of GLOBAL UGRAD, a program of the Bureau of Educational and Cultural Affairs, U.S. Department of State. NESAs UGRAD will award scholarships to outstanding students from countries in the Middle East, North Africa, South Asia, and Sub-Saharan Africa for one-year of undergraduate, non-degree studies programs in the United States at a diverse network of accredited two- and four-year institutions. Participants will be enrolled full-time and will live on-campus with an American roommate. Participants will not select host institutions and placements will not be changed. Possible fields of study include, but are not limited to, the humanities, arts, social sciences, mathematical science, natural and physical sciences, and applied science. Examples of past fields of study can be found on page four.

PROFESSIONAL TRAINING

Community Service: To expose participants to the principles of community service and social responsibility in the United States, NESAs UGRAD participants will be required to perform a minimum of 20 hours of community service at local organizations during their first term.

Part-Time Internship: Internships provide an essential opportunity for participants to gain professional experience and skills that can be applied to their future careers in their home countries. NESAs UGRAD participants will be required to intern a minimum of 8 hours per week during their second semester. Each participant's internship must be related to their field of study stated in their application. Internships will be unpaid and take place in the local community.

ELIGIBILITY REQUIREMENTS

Competition for the NESAs UGRAD program is merit-based. Candidates will be considered without respect to race, color, religion, national origin, or gender. Persons with disabilities are encouraged to apply. The competition is open to anyone who:

- Is a citizen, national or permanent resident qualified to hold a valid passport issued by the country from which applicant is applying;
- Is completing his/her final year of secondary school or enrolled in first-, second-, third-, fourth-year full-time undergraduate study at the time of application at a registered academic institution in his/her country and is in good academic standing.
- Fourth-year students must have an additional term of study to complete at their home institution upon completion of the NESAs UGRAD program;

SELECTION PROCESS AND CRITERIA

The NESA UGRAD Program is conducted as a merit-based open competition. After the deadline, all eligible applications will be reviewed by a panel of academic specialists and/or academic exchange specialists. Chosen semi-finalists will be interviewed in their home country. All applicants will be notified of their status in spring/summer 2014.

Selection panels will use the following criteria to evaluate applications (not in order of importance):

- Academic excellence
- Cross-cultural interest
- Demonstrated leadership potential
- Demonstrated proficiency in written and spoken English
- Flexibility and suitability as an exchange student
- Commitment to returning to their home country after completion of the program
- Preference will be given to students that represent disadvantaged and underrepresented communities with no prior experience outside their countries

APPLICATION INSTRUCTIONS

General Instructions:

- Please answer ALL questions on the application in English.
- Include your full, legal name, family name (surname) as written on official documents.
- Do NOT leave any spaces blank. If a question does not apply to you, enter “N/A” (not applicable).

SPECIFIC INSTRUCTIONS

Question 13 – Testing: You MUST provide the results of the TOEFL (or ITP TOEFL or IELTS) exam, as well as a copy of the test results with your application for placement purposes. Applicants who do not submit TOEFL (or ITP TOEFL or IELTS) scores will be considered ineligible. U.S. institutions require TOEFL (or ITP TOEFL or IELTS) scores for admission purposes.

If you have taken the GRE or GMAT exams, please provide your score results as well as a copy of the results with your application. Please note that the GRE and GMAT scores are not required for your application and do not make you a more competitive participant. Costs associated with the GRE and GMAT will not be reimbursed on this program. However, if scores are available, they can be used during the placement process and, therefore, should be reported.

ADDITIONAL FORMS

Additional forms must be submitted by the applicants to the U.S. Embassy or local Fulbright Commission directly as part of the application.

Supplemental Form: The supplemental form requests additional information about you and your family. As part of the supplemental form, we ask that you complete a personal statement in English that is a minimum of 450 words, but not to exceed 2 typed pages. The personal statement is an essential part of the selection process and of your application for placement at an appropriate institution. Please be sure to include any details that highlight your personality and individuality. Sample questions are provided on the supplemental form to assist you.

Recommendation form: Applicants must include 2 letters of recommendation completed by 2 different people. If the recommendation form is completed in a language other than English, there must be an accurate translation, which may be done by the applicant. The form may be completed by a supervisor, a professor/academic advisor/dean, or a community leader who knows the applicant well and is familiar with the applicant's academic and/or professional work. Relatives and friends of the applicant may not complete this form.

The deadline for applications to be submitted by all participating locales for the NESA UGRAD Program is January 28, 2014 to passanaa@state.gov.

No application will be returned to the applicant after the end of the competition.
